ILLILEO.

llileo Legardi! in the garden there alone,

scattered scales:

of nightingales.

carved of stone.

voice's vain purson,

found you thus in this?

paces through the vast:

all achast.

the past

high repose

crimson of a rose.

chased off a broker.

FOR WANT OF A NAIL.

BY HELEN P. BAUNA D.

though I clung by just a kiss!

heaven I would miss serenader's lute.

undertone

were mute.

silken sails,

EEKLY CAUCASIAN.

D. A. NICHOLSON, Editor and Proprietor.

Pure Democracy and White Supremacy.

Subscription Price, $1.50 per Annum.

VOL. V.

CLINTON, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1886.

NO. 2.

OUR CHURCHES.

METHODIST-REV. J. T. KENDALL, Pastor. Services: First Sundays, —morning and night, and second Sunday nights. Prayer Meeting, Thursday nights.

PRESBYTERIAN - Rav. B. F. MARABLE, Pastor. Services: Second and fourth Sundays. Prayer Meeting, Wednesday nights.

Tuesday nights.

EPISCOPAL-No pastor. Sundayschool at 9 a. m.

H. B. GIDDENS,

WATCHMAKER.

CLINTON, N. C.

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Musical Instruments and Sowing Machines Repaired and Ordered at short notice, and at lowest cash

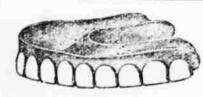

SUBSCRIBE

-FOR THE-

The Largest, Cheapest and Best Paper Published in this Section.

ONLY $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

D. A. NICHOBSON, Publisher.

DENTISTRY.

Frank Boyette, D. D. S.,

Offers his services to the people of Clinton and vicinity. Everything in the line of Dentistry done in the best style. Satisfaction guarant office at Mrs. Dr. C. T. Murphy's

FREE TRIAL! IMPOTENT MEN.

Procreative Powers

By the Indiscretions of Youth or Excesses of

Sexual Power

By the use of

Maturer Years, may be quickly restored to PERFECT MANHOOD

NERVITA Thousands of cases of Nervous Debility. nervous prostration, results of indiscretions, excess or any cause, cured by Nervita. No remody ever offered to the afflicted has met with such unprecedented success. It has no equal for curing all forms of Nervous Waste, EXHAUSTION DEBILITY OR DECAY. Its beneficial effects are immediately perceptible; in a of renewed agor and strength is apparent. It effects a pompt and radical cure, and is the only safe and effectual remedy known for curing all forms of Nervous Denility from any cause. Its effects are permanent. No remedies you have tried, or how many doctor. have failed. When the disease has balled the skill of the ablest physicians, what makencholy and despair have taken he picco of hope, and the world looks blank and drear. Nervita will inspire new life rul per a treat ly care body and mind. 14,7 7 cases and by is use in 1884. Strong fails that it will care EVERY CASE p. omp's ne se send a trial package on r ceipt of 12 cents for postage, No. Dr. A. G. OLIN, 187 E. Washington St.

CHICAGO, ILL. Box 243. OWEN HOLMES & SON.

THE

GOLDSBORO, N. C.

Strictly First Class in Every Respect.

tentive waiters. Rooms Large, Airy and Comfortably Furnished. Telegraph, Ticket, Post Offices, and Large Sample Rooms in the Building.

Polite and Careful Porters. Quick and a

CARS STOP NEAR THE DOOR.

Special attention given to the Dining Room, which has been thoroughly renovated and im-

Rates $2 and $2.50 per Day.

of gaudily painted chariots .- Texas HOLMES &

then they want the very best that can b had. Dr. A. M. Lee & Brother keep only such; they also eary a full line of Patent Medicines, Essential Oils, Per-fumery, Trusces, English Tooth Brushes, Medicinal Whisky and Horse Powders.

The prettiest girl in Sampson remarked to a doctor the other day that she knew LEE'S BACKACHE PLASTER WAS Pastor. Bervices: Third Sundays—morning and night. Prayer Meeting, Mr. T. J. Lee recommends it to all.

CLINTON

Just try one,

Drug Store.

DR. A. M. LEE & BRO.

Drugs and Chemicals, Pure Essential Oils, Patent Medicines, Perfumery, Trusses, Best English Cement Tooth

LEE'S BACKACHE PLASTER.

Backache is the bane of women from early school-life to old age, and few females are without it for fully three-fourths of every day of their life. Well, the great remedy for this distressing complaint is LEE'S BACKACHE PLASTER, which scores of Clinton and hundreds of Sampson women pronounce the best Plaster ever made. This Plaster is composed of fresh Balsams and Gums and pure India Rubber, and is the result of six year's experience in compounding plasters. Backache, weak back, sore chest, heart and hyer troubles, kidney diseases, rheumatism, and nearly all pains speedcured by it. It never irritates the most sensitiue skin, but sooths and strengthens the parts. Try one. Prepared and sold only by T. J. LEE, Druggist.

PURE MEDICINAL WRISKY.

A pure and wholesome m dicinal stimulant this want Pure Barley Corn Whisky. years old, is offered to the public, with the marantee of its perfect purity and wholesomeness in every particular. This liquor is the pure extract of CORN and BARLEY, and is either Drugged, Liquered nor Watered in Dr. A. M. LEE & BRO., Druggists.

LEE'S WART SPECIFIC. A certain cure for warts on horses and mules -as Col. John Ashford, Capt. Cornelius Partrick, Capt. W. Lucius Faison, Mr. W. H. Faison, Col. Abner M. Faison and hundreds of others in Sampson and adjoining counties will others in Sampson by certify. Sold only by T. J. LEE, Druggist.

WORMS IN HORSES. LEE'S WORM Specific never fails to expel worms from horses and mules. Warranted in every case. Sold only by T. J. LEE, Druggist.

HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS. We offer under this head the best Condition the leading Drug Monse of the United States, from the formula of Dr. Williams, of England, the most distinguished Veterinary Surgeon living. They are excellent appetizers, a general alterative and tenic, and can be relied not pretty. There were bucks and squaws and papooses of every conceived blankets. One strapping big buck, warm as it was, was wearing a chinchilla overcoat that must have weighed things with a stolid indifference that appeared cool enough for a cucumber.

Some wore hats, though not a few

PRINCE KARAMOKO went to see the French soldiers at Chalons and much

A. B. MULLETT, ex-Supervising Archi-earthquake shocks in Charleston by the amount of damage done. He thinks that if Washington, for instance, had comparative damage would not have been more than half, if so much. The buildings in Charleston are almost al.

from the immediate locality, and are of Chows have been known to free themselves from parasites by standing over an ant-hill and allowing the ants to destroy the troublesome vermin.

of a very inferior character.

ped about his head.

did not lose his patience; triumph upon as a remedy for all diseases of domestic animals. They are composed of Licorice Root, Juniper Perries, Flaxseed, Gentian, Ginger, DR. A. M. LEE & BRO., Druggists. tended with some difficulty, Mr. Bil-A REPORTER of the Nashville Union kin's progress homeward was a sort of this a grain bigger." took a view of the Apache captives, as triumphal march, with variations -according to the mood of the Princess. they went through Nashville toward He entered his own yard with the air Florida, and found them interesting, i pare a pen, and thus transfer the strain able size and every condition of aborom muscle to insensate wood. riginal filthiness. A majority of the It happened that Mrs Bilkins was in men, however, were fine, stalwart, the barn when he arrived, and also broad-shouldered fellows over six feet Orrin, the hired man. The latter was high, with high cheek-bones, long, examining a broken frame on which was stretched Mrs. Bilkin's latest work of art in rags, a hooked-in mat. The deblack hair, and of light copper col-They were rigged out in all styles and sign was a wonderful garland of flowers modes of fantastic citizens' clothing, whose roses Orrin stupidly mistook for colored cabbages, in the midst of and seemed to have donned whatever which a vellow cat reposed. they could lay their hands upon, while As this masterpiece was to compete a large number still wore the aborigior a prize at the next "cattle-show, nal buckskin leggins and gayly-color-

Mrs Bilkin's hoped Orrin could repair the frame. He said he could. Indeed, Orrin never acknowledged that anything was beyond his ability. He had even taken the old clock to pieces when it twenty pounds, and yet he viewed stopped; but assurance would not put it together again without the aid of knowledge, and he was forced to wheel it to town. As he lost a part of the ma chinery on the way, it cost not a little were perfectly bareheaded. One felmoney Mrs. Bilkin's faith in Orrin low had on a battered stovepipe, and never recovered from that shock. "That was why she lingered, resolved another venerable scalp-taker had a that he should not get her mat-frame into a worse condition, and why she was big red bandana handkerchief wrappresent when her spouse made his hasty ing she didn't know when she'd seen such a beautiful bossy. admired the polished breast-plates of "It orter be!" said Orrin, with his inthe cuirassiers, whereupon the com- imitably profound air. 'It's the real manding General gave him one of the o' them fancy farmers." bits of armor. The negro put it on Mr. Bilkins turned the Princess over entrance. She shared his delight, declardelighted; and then his face clouded to Orrin. And then occurred something and tears came to his eyes. "What is that made Mrs. Bilkins always connect the matter?" inquired the General. the arrival of the foreign scion with rag "Alas!" cried Karamoko, "as soon as I the calf executed a new manœuvre, got get home my father will take this from away, and plunged into the frame. The Central Hotel of the City. me and wear it himself." Then the There was a crash and a feminine shriek General gave him another one, and all as the Princess danced off in it. When at length the garland and the pussy were handed to Mrs. Bilkins, she had given all hope of obtaining the prize. A little pen, labelled by Orrin, tect of the Treasury, says that it is a "Gunsy princes," now became the home mistake to estimate the violence of the of the calf.

She held quite a court there, for every one who called at the farm must see the squire's gift. Experts said she would make a most valuable cow, a prospect been subjected to the same shocks, the that greatly helped Mr. Bilkins bear with the foreigner, as daily her activities strengthened in the wrong direc-'ere Gunsy's got out agin!"

"I AM a circus wag in myself," said the clown, as he joined the procession

"I've thought sometimes I might," mk. d, the Guernsey cluding him by said Mr Bilkins. "But anybody that turning a short corner.

New it chanced that an old fruitlifeo! The moonlight seemed lost across the His emphasis hinted at a large sum. He repeated the sentence several times he stars bestrewed the azure like an armor's before he would give his figures. Finally he offered the Princess for seventyhe airs of night were quiet as the breath of five dollars, declaring he knew it was a large sum, but she was a real Gurnsey. And all your words were sweeter then the notes The dealer departed, saying he would let him know in a few days. Very soon Mr. Bilkins received this brief letter: "MR. BLEINS-I accept your offer. ith your figure carved of fervor as the Psyche

Will take calf at $75. F. O. B. cars, here came to me no murmur of the fountain's That "F. O. B." was the subject of So mystically, musically mellow as your own. Mr. Bilkins' frequent conjectures, until he found that it meant "Free on Board" You whispered low, Illileo-so low the leaves

"Who'd a thought it!" exclaimed And the echoes faltered breathlessly in your Mrs. Bilkins, when the mysterious char, acters were explained to her. "Well, And there died the distant dalliance of the be you a-going to run the resk o' getting that highty-tighty acrost the city?

Mr. Bilkins, having already settled Illileo, I listened; I believed you! In my bliss What were all the worlds above me, since I these points, indulged in a little masculine sarcasm, at his wife's expense, "He'd look pretty," he said, "wouldn't he, cantering through Boston hanging Let them, recling, reach to win me-even on to that calf ? No, sir! that Guernsey Grasping earthward - I would cling here, was going to be boxed up so she'd have to ride as quiet as a lamb." And I said the stars should slacken in their Carpenter Simons was called in to estimate the cost. He wanted ten dol-That blossoms should grow odorless and lilies lars to make the box in shape, and furnish the lumber. Mr. Bilkins labored Ere yet my loyalty should fail enduring to the with him, but he would take no less. So vowed I. It is written. It is changeless as self with glory. "I'l resk it but I can ground. get up as good a box as Simons." Illileo Legardi! in the shade your palace Like the cowl about the singer at your gilded save them nearly a month's wages, which was then wide open. A mean goes with the music that may vex the They now planned a rude sort of cage, Of a heart that fades and crumbles as the could be raised for the entrance of the vegetables, butter and eggs, and might dred tortunes made. You know that

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY. herself. Orrin's standard for determinlength with his thumb; but while going from the barn to the box, somebody spoke to him, his thumb moved, a small about to retrace her steps, heard her Mr. Bilkins is a most accommodating circumstance in Orrin's estimation; be neighbor. All last winter, when Souire guessed he knew pretty near where the Prescott's family were in Europe, he place was, and, re-instating the mark, went over their house every day to see went confidently to work.

that it was as they left it, and took such | Another small circumstance,- the care of the stock that the squire said he nails gave out! But Orrin triumphed thought it would pay him to stay away. over the imminent prospects of waiting The squire brought back some additions while he went to the store, by using for Mr Bilkins very soon secured her, der down the last fraudulent establish to the facm; among others a fine Guern- what he called "butts," or parts of sev cow-Queen Bess-and her calf. The nails. latter they named Princess. The two 'Some folks'd sink right back'n' do were the admiration of the farmers for rothin' 'cause their nails had gin out," iles around. They had more faith in said Orrin, "You've got to have some loose in the streets of Boston!" this living stock than in any to be pur- contrivance if you're going to rush When the Princess was six weeks old. The box being done, Mr. Bilkins prethe spring called Ma Bilkins in, as be pared himself for alle trip. It has en was passing, and, to his astonishment event, as he had not been to Boston for years. Mrs. Bilkins got his "stove pipe So along the country road, shortly hat" down from the top of the closet.

after, Mr. Bilkins joyfully wended his It was four years behind the times, but way, leading by a rope the baby of after being well-polished with her el-Queen Bess. She proved to be very bow, it covered-in her eyes-her frolesome and headstrong; what with husband with becoming dignity. As her jumping, tugging and pulling, her far as possible, everything was made new master had a trial indeed. But although breathless, Mr. Bilkins kins must take an early train. In the morning he arrayed himself in beamed from every line of his perspiring his best before boxing up the calf, that face. It added to his pleasure to meet he might not keep her waiting. As it several farmer friends who, recognizing had become generally known that the the royal beauty, asked facetiously if he young Guernsey was going to leave was stealing the squire's calf Mr. Bil- town, old Deacon Grant and several of kins explained, with becoming modesty, the neighbors dropped in. After a crithow he came to be the owner of such a ical survey of the box, the former said: valuable bit of beef. So, although at- 'This 'ere 'll be a pretty tight

It-was set in the middle of the barnfloor, and the Princess led out. Orrin went to the front and thrust some corn of a conqueror. He hastened towards through to tempt Miss Bossy to enter the great barn, intending to fasten his the rear. But she didn't like the looks uneasy prize to a post till he could pre of things, and refused, firmly bracing her aristocratic hoofs. Mr. Bilkins said he thought she'd go in if pushed a little. So he and Deacon again. Grant attempted it.

> But the calf backed suddenly, sending new capers. When at length she was great run! He told the bystanders, caught, the cage proved to be, as the mournfully, that he wouldn't have taken Orrin let down the door, and the Princess had accommodated herself to straitened circumstances, she looked something like a young camel. "I told ye so!" said the deacon. "Well, I guess she'll stand it !" said Mr. Bilkins. "It's only two hours' ride. Orrin he's going to the depot, I'll have to handle her myself in Boston. Got to get her acrost the city, too!" A little later Mr. Bilkins and the calf were travelling together in the freight bargained with a teamster to carry this days. The odd freight to the Albany Station. farm, a wiser man by the they lifted one end of the box upon the brought home out of the seventy-five shriek frightened the expressman's two cents.-horse. He moved despite several fran-"I can put my finger on the weaktic yells from the cage-bearers, and spot in the whole thing," he told Ordown it went on the pavement, knock-rin. "We started wrong. It was ing out one end. The Princess began these butts of your'n. It don't do to nudience in America to day is less than under the lens, teso ves itself into thin to back out, Mr. Bilkins and the team- use poor nails. The next time we sell a four hundred. But in the glorious time beams of red and yellow light. Through building, and the Guernsey was free in the streets of Boston! Away she scampered along Canal street, every teamster she passed giving an inspiring cheer. Mr. Bilkins rushed after, ploughing through the mud, utterly indifferent to his best black suit. one thought uppermost in his distracted mind-the calf must be delivered at the Albany depot, properly boxed. As Mr. Bilkins dashed along, in his looked the wilder-Mr. Bilkins or the Before they had gone many rods a tion. She had a chronic habit of jump large number of people joined in the ing over walls, and preferred to browse race. The calf ran swiftly on without set on the back of his head, it would caser was sweeping around his stand, with his bak towards them. The Princess brushed past him with her utwhat struck him he threw up both hands al fell against the corner of his fruitstand, upsetting it.

Mr. Bilkins saw it all in one agonized gladee, as he sped by after his property. who had now turned into an alley. resently he saw a new danger for aluable calf -a policeman at the end of the passage-way, who, beholding her approach with a shouting crowd inpurent, evidently took it to be a case drophobia that ought to be exterted. This fact flashed into Mr.

mind as he saw him taking a that it would surely descend fatally upon the skull of the Princess, and all the And I held you in my bosom as the husk may Orin'll have to go, and that's an extra golden possibilities of her future would be extinguished forever, and she be worth only the price per pound of ordipary yeal.

'Wait! Hold on! Don't spoil the critter!" he shouted. The officer did not hear, but braced seemed to reason that retreat was cut off by the crowd, and with a valor worthy of herself, charged at the enemy

She was too quick for him; his warlike attitude suddenly collapsed; for a few seconds he seemed to be riding the "He's jest bleeding on us,' said calf backwards, while the crowd roared Orrin, who saw a chance to cover him. with laughter, then he fell to the

So Orrin got the job. Mr. Bilkins provision store. Rather than enter the will be no hilarity, and as all business silencing his wife's migivings by show- noisy street, the Princess ran in there, will be purified there will be no entering her that their hired man would thus making straight for the opposite door, prise. My friends, there is no founda-

> Mrs | not closed the door after her. into a panic of fright; she whirled

> > horror of the provision dealer, who kept | Brooklyn and New York, and in every "Somebody's got to pay for this!" This ended the race of the Princess, commercial code, when God shall thunand was trying to explain matters satis- ment, when God shall put the keys of factorily to the bespattered policeman. business in the hands of honest men, inals by all means, but I have sometimes officer. "We can't have calves running of business and more business and "I hadn't no idea she'd get loose. Why, we boxed her up ourselves, Orrin am not talking about some guesswork, finat's my hired man-and me. Calc'- I am not dealing in an abstraction, but started, the horse and upset the box, and cities all grievous taxation will be gone. there'd been befter nails 'stead o' Orrin's Now business men are taxed for every-butts, we wouldn't a been here. I thing-city tax, county tax, State tax, wouldn't had it happen for a five-dollar | United States tax, license tax, manufac-"Five dollars!" said the store keeper.

the store keeper. "Course you're resupport all the machinery of city gov-sponsible, but I'll figure the thing down ernment, which is vast and expensive fine; I don't want to make anything out just in proportion as the criminal pro-He hastily estimated the cost as three de lars and ninety-four cents. Mr. Bil- for the criminal courts? The tax pay-critter's done.'

that worthy, that he assisted in getting monopoly, anti abomination, and you interesting to the visitor, but furnish to the calf into the expressman's hands who are living in luxury now at the the scientific investigator phenomena of When she was secured by a strong rope, Mr. Bilkins wiped his heated brow deacon thought, rather short; for after fifty dollars for it, as it was his grand- of vice. No more large sums of money is from 15 to 100 feet thick, while the father's "What kind of a watch was it?" in quired the officer. "It may be handed was an English pinch-back; had one o'

them ring-chains and ornamunt. Well, good by, friends, one and all."

Mr. Bilkins rode away. He was not car. Arriving at Boston, Mr. Bilkins seen by any of his acquaintances for bargained with a teamster to carry this odd freight to the Albany Station.

"This box is pretty shaky," said the man, when they took it off the car.

Mr. Bilkins explained that they didn't to the car.

Mr. Bilkins explained that they didn't to the car.

Mr. Bilkins explained that they didn't to the car.

Mr. Bilkins explained that they didn't to the car.

Mr. Bilkins explained with a teamster to carry this two days. The card at his own demoninations collide with each other and demoninati d at his own think the calf would be so heavy, as lar and eighteen cents, he having wagon; but just then the engine's dollars, but forty-five dollars and eightyster tried to push her in, but her royal will was aroused, she retrograded with such force and rapidity that Mr. Bil-such force and rapidity that Mr. Bil-such

Rabbit Killing in Australia.

in Australia to destroy the swarms of people come after very careful attention rabbits is reported to have proved emi- to toilet, and they sit down for a while nently successful. In one of the worst in a pew where they want plenty of A young recruit recently enlisted at infested districts of Victoria 250 cats room, nobody beside them, and then if Camp Hanco k, near Atlanta, while the bought at 1s. a head, inclosed for a time | they have any time left from the th k | country was threatening war with in a limited space by means of wire net. ing of the store or the studying of the Mexico, and he intended to make a good payable to some particular person, write ting, fed on rabbits and afterward turned apparel of the person scated before them soldier. One day he was on guard duty loose in batches, food having been still they listen to a sermon warranted to hit and was slowly stepping along when an antiquated suit, high dicky, and beaver supplied in a rough building for any cats which might not at once support themselves by hunting. Not a single cat is known to have found its way to its original home, and as to the result of the experiment, the special reporter of the Melbourne Economy Court of the Melbourne Economy Court of the Melbourne Economy Court of the music in many of the chareles is a sion stole over his face. have been difficult to decide which of the Melbourne Farmer's Guzette says: mockery. I have not a cultivated car. As the o cer received the gun he together very old, the mortar and cement used in their construction are ture. Almost daily Orrn cried, "That was something new; the Princess stopped sand hummocks just a little before twi-Then, after a prolonged chase, Mr.

With a glear of satisfaction in his three rabbits. The cats, on the other listic music. I think the dellar r five ing to do?" Bilkins would appear in the kitchen, sink into the nearest chair, wipe his heated brow, and tell his wife, confidentially, that if he'd known that calf was going to be such a pester, he and away again. Everybody cleared was going to be such a pester, he and away again. Everybody cleared and away again. Everybody cleared the complete maswas going to be such a pester, he "wouldn't have taken her for a gift!"

When this selfish baby was eight months old, Mr. Bilkins was called upon by a stock-dealer, who was passing through the town, and who asked if he would sell the calf.

Everybody cicared calf vere evidently the complete masters of the situation." The writer goes on to express the opinion that there is no doubt whatever as to the success of the opinion that there is no doubt whatever as to the success of the experiment, which is, moreover, as through the town, and who asked if he would sell the calf.

Indifference. I have been in churchas through you in a pair's minutes!"

The officer instantly decided not to where vast sums of money were paid for monkey any further with the raw recruit, and it was exquisite, and it was exquisite, and it was exquisite, and it was exquisite. The officer instantly decided not to where vast sums of money were paid for monkey any further with the raw recruit, and it was exquisite, and it was exquisite. The officer instantly decided not to where vast sums of money were paid for monkey any further with the raw recruit, and it was exquisite, and it was exquisite to the very last point and the gun was promptly surrendered.

Everybody cicared the calf.

THE SUNDAY PULPIT.

REV. DR. TALM GE ON THE DIRK SHAROWS OF THE CITY.

The Focs to be Met and Guarded Against On All Sid s.

thereof," Zacharia, viii: 5.

pursuers, and became almost frantic.

provements go down into the pockets of action. those who vo'ed them. No more im in I'll take your a dress, and let you know if it does ture up."

"I'll be obleged, and ye shan't lose nothing," said Mr. Bakins, fervently.

"Well, it had a large sized silver case; what prosperity that will make for all what prosperity that will make for all fifty to sixty feet in height, with diamthe cities and for all the world. In that eters varying from two to four feet time spoken of in my text the churches of Jesus Christ will be more numerous is for the most part et black, but much wise. and they will be exerting a mightier of it is mottled and streaked with bright influence for God. Now, churches are brownish red and various shades of sometimes envious of each other and brown, from dark to light yellowish, just as much difference of opinion as cess of cooling has been broken into there is now, but no acerbity, no hyper-criticism, no exclusiveness Why the again cemented by the later flow, proone-fourth of the population. The breccia. In some places the material churches that are built, only a few of shows a fine satin lustre, while in others them are fully occupied and the average a deep golden sheen is noticeable, which, seemons they will preach for our ciries make it the most conspicuous and char-now for the most part what is called a acteristic variety of volcame lava known. below the proper "ay. For instance, The experiment of turning cats loose | fashionable church is a place to which |

Dr. Talmage discoursed to a great "And the streets of the city shall be full cities shall be completely revolutionized by the Gospel of the Son of God, and all sin and all sorrow and all suffering shall forever be done away. "and the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls, are and see to what a sensual, besotted, playing in the streets thereof ?" The kingdoms of this world are going to behimself for the conflict. The Princess Christ. There is a great difference come the kingdoms of our Lord Jesus whether you are toiling on toward a de feat, or toiling on toward a victory. Now, in the glorious time spoken of in my text, and which will come just a you are there and I am here -in that time there will be larger financial prosperities in all the cities. People have a drunk! Nothing. What will be done morbid idea about the millennium, as though when it comes we will do nothing but give ourselves up to psalm sing. What will they do with that man who At the end of the alley was a large ing, and, all so icty being purified there tion in common sense or in the Bible for She avoided instinctively the rows of such an absurd anticipation. Where not will they do with those men who in one end of which was a door that baskets for customers, containing meat, one for une is made there will be a hun induced a young man to take Unfortunately for the plan, Mr Bil- thing if an old lady who was leaving had founds ion of all successful business. this church and frantically asked what Now, when all dishonesty is gone and he must do? Nothing. Little did the good dame think, as she all double dealing is gone, and all un small criminals. If a man steals $10 ing the length of the Princess was the rake-handle. He carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake-handle. The carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the let loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle. The carefully marked the loose in the quiet shop by just shut-rake handle ing the door. For it threw the Guernsey opulence, grander architecture, finer do not steal enough! How is it with equipage, grander and more magnificent the trials in the court rooms of this prosperity? You know that business is country? What are they doing with crushed several parcels of eggs, to the know that the worst foc of business in room that can arrest, try and condemn city, is crime, individual and official crime. Now when God shall purify the "What does this mean, sir?" asked the | what will that imply? The purification man here in Boston to carry her there is a God and that He ever present grander business. It is a logical sequence. When that day comes-and I and if the cars hadn't tooted and ed us this Bible - in that time in our turing tax - taxes, taxes, taxes, A. business man must make a small fortune clean to the bottom. But, my friends, want that for the damage done to pay his taxes. We have to pay the board of all the villians in our peniten-'I can't be responsible for what the tiaries. We have to support the orphans of those who plunged into their graves

"It's your calf, isn't it ?" answered from beastly indulgence. We have to clivities are vast and extensive. Who squeeze, Bilkins; you'd ought to make kin was paying this when the fruit this a grain bigger."

squeeze, Bilkins; you'd ought to make kin was paying this when the fruit you Democrats, who are sometimes fat-yet for all religious purposes I would ather have the outbreaking song of a backwood Methodist camp meeting.

Let one of these artistic songs that I have sometimes heard suag in church arrive in Heaven, and how mean it would look beside one of the great dexelogies of the redeemed. Why, if one of hose operation airs that sometimes goes up from a church should got three hours start it would be overtaken and passed by the throng, as usual, Sunday, his text being hosanna of Sunday school children ben, in that time I am speaking of, all of boys and girls playing in the streets the haunts of iniquity will be broken up; all city iniquities will be banished Printing presses and prophets are now and abolished. You say by the power chiefly busy in describing the condition of education. It will not be done in of the present time; but will it not be that way. You say by humanitarian healthful this morning for all Christian effort. It will not be done in that way.

workers, and all men and women who I will tell you how it will be done, by are trying to make the world better the power of the Gaspel of the San of three are thousands of them here - God. In that day what municipal gov men who eber lived, but I know dat he ernments. Now I know there is a great difference between municipal governments. But in many of the cities you just go down and look around the City loathsome, accursed crew city politics for the most part has been abandoned. and see them standing all day long around some of the City Lalls picking their teeth and waiting for some crumbs of emolument to fall at their feet. Who are those drunken women taken to the police station, and then, of course, thrust into prison ? What will be done with that gambler who last night took the young man's $500 ? Nothing. broke through and destroyed the purity credit furof a Christian home with an advoitness and a perfidy that beat the strategy of hell, flinging a shricking soul into bottomless perdition ? Nothing. What sums of money from his employers, have got out without damaging any- confidence between man and man is the which young man came to an officer of men, an' doin' as he would be done by walked slowly homeward, after order fairness is gone, there will be complete send him to Raymond street Jail. If a libed up to all de plints which go to injured by the infamous stock gamblers these Coney Island gamblers t Where Lawd hasn't divided de world into only Her hoofs stamped choice butter, and and by the godless speculators. You is the genius in the American court two classes—de purfessing Christiaus, such scoundrels? Before the trial is over, in some way, somehow, nobody had given to him a pair of gold spectacles, through which he sees things in a different light. Punish the small crimthought it might be a good thing if the ficers of the law would turn out of the prison some of the ten cent offenders and the ten dollar desperadoes and petty criminals and put in their places some of these monsters of iniquity, who ride span, going so swiftly that honest men have to leap to get out of the way of plied Brother Gardner said: being run over. Oh, what damnable "Brudder Smith, what sort of a schemes even professors of religion are

A Glass Mountain.

sometimes engaged in, until the Lord

lar of the robe of hypocrisy and rips it all these wrongs are going to be righted.

150 to 200 FEET IN HEIGHT. One of the forthcoming reports of the Dot beast smashed mine whole pees- tening on the public spoils, while you lowstone Park. This cliff is an elevanes! Somepody's dot to pay for dis; are doing nothing for the public well-fare, that if you do not lessen taxes, and feet high, the material of which, Prof. fr. Bilkins finally settled with him do not let the people up all over this laddings says, "is as good a glass as any land we will after a while form a party artificially manufactured." Its colors and two dollars, which so mollified public crib, you shall not have as much importance. The cliff presents part of as the wages of a street sweeper. Now a section of a surface flow of obsidian. in that time, that time which is coming which poured down an ancient slope in all our cities, the time of prosperity from the piateau lying east. It is imto the barn-yard, where she cut up many ver watch. It was gone, lost in his spoken of in my text, we will not have possible to determine what the original to support criminals, for there will be thickness of this flow was. The dense no crimina's. Virtue will take the place glass which now forms its lower portion voted for city improvements, which porous and pumiceous upper portion has moneys often before they reach the in- suffered from ages of crosian and glacial

> A remarkable feature of the cliff is the development of prismatic columns, to their order, and few realize the in-churches of our cities could not hold ducing many colored and beautiful tic songs they will sing! Ch! what ear- of which is to still further vary the ap- P. Read. It the spelling of the name nest prayers they will offer. Oh, what pearance and leastly of the rock, and on the face of the check is wrong, in-

Each Received a Lesson.

Crape on the Door .- The Chestnet Rell

THE LINE KILN CLUB.

[From the Detroit Free Press.] For the first time in three or four months the members, as they assembled in Paradise Hall, found crape on the inner door. There was considerable speculation as to the identity of the cceased, but no one was certain until Brother Gardner arose and said:

"My frens, it becomes my painful outy to announce de death of Brudder Arbutus Kingdom, an honorary member residin' in Kentucky, who passed rom dis sirth away las' Wednesday night arter a brief illness. He was head at de annual 'lecshun two y'ars ago, an' was fair to medium, an' dat's sayin' a beap for any man. In dese days of hypoorisy, theft, speculation, aroon an' urder de man who keeps cl'ar of jails an' scandals has got to be a better man dan moas' people gin him credit fur De preacher who had charge of Brudder Arbutuses funeral kinder letimated dat, while de deceased was not a purfessing Christian, de angel had kin him credit in Heaben fur a good many ackshuns, an' dat he wouldn't be chucked away into the same bin as hoss thieves, burlars an' child stealers. I shall take de berty, on behalf of dis club, to send dat preacher money to buy hisself a pair of stoga butes fur winter wear. He hits the buil's eye plumb center. He an-nounced in his funeral orashun dat

Studder Arbutus had dout tless received. 1. Squar' treatment of his family. 2. Stickin' to de troof when he could ev made money by lyin'

3. Mindia' his own bleness fur fifty 4. Strivin' fur peace between all His tongue was free from lies, an' his make a Christian man, an' de ideah dat he is to be sot off wid a lot of thieves, murderers an' blacklegs is sunthin' i can't believe in. I'z glad to hev found one preacher who has de belief dat de who am to be whooped straight into Heaben, an' de non purfessing, who am to be whooped straight into de odder place widout reference as to moral character. De money will be tooken from de treasury as' charged up on de eash book to buildin' an' repairs, an' de Secretary will see to it dat de butes go off to morrow by express. If de preacher belongs to any orthodox church he will cartinly be expelled for heresy, an' he li need de butes to hunt rabbits an' look fur a job." REPRIMANDED ident's desk, and when he had com-

puts the finger of retribution in the col- | west?" "Dat's a chestnut bell, sah?" "When you start out to sell chestnuts you ring dat bell, ch! "No, sah. I ring de bell when anybody gits off an old joke." "Oh, I see. What ereck does it hev on de odder pusson?"

masheene am dat you w'ar on your

' I-I doan' know, sah." "What effeck does it hev on you?" Julius Casar shifted around uneasily out didn't reply. "Brudder Smith," continued the President, "a pussoa who am fool 'nuff to pin one of dose things to his west loan' know an old joke from a new one. Dat class of pussons who cry tchestnuts! m' 'rats!' to give de ba'ance of de wor'd ideals dat dey am smart, am really world put together de better it will be le only class widout brains 'null to keep em straight in de road. You walk ober to dat winder an' dran dat bell into de illey, an' de sooner you git de ideah dat

you doan' know more'r all de rest of de

HOW TO INDORSE A CHECK. A Little Advice Given by a Bank Clerk

Very few otherwise intelligent and educated people understand how to properly indorse a bank check payable convenience they cause by placing their in orsement in an awkward position An observance of the following rules will enable anybody to place their signature in the proper piace: 1. Write across the back - not length

2. The top of the back is the left end of the face. 3. To deposit a check, write "For de posit," and below this your name. A c erk not having the power of attorney to sign or indorse checks, can deposit his firm's checks by writing on the top of the back, "For deposit only to credit and below this write his 4. Simply writing your name on the back of a check signifies that it has passed through you hands and is payable to bearer. 5. Always indorse a check as it apif the check is payable on the face to "George Reade," indorse "George write what it should have been-"George Read. 6. It you wish to make the check Pay to order of ---All strangers presenting checks for payment must be identified by some one known to the bank.

Reade," and below this indorsement

His Heme was Broken Up.

A man was arrested for jumping from a ferryboat at Chatou into the Seine to commit suicide, and when taken before the police related this story: " I am not a miserable pauper as you might think.
I have money on me (showing a po. ket-book with 4000f. in notes, still wet, in it) I lived for twenty years in the Rue Crozatier, but the house has been taken for improvements and pulled down. My existence has since been broken up. A l my habits have been deranged. Life has become a burden to me, and I re-solved to die." The man's home is now a lunatic asylum.